AUGUST NEWS 2015

Dearest Partners and Friends,

"The steps of a good man are ordered of the Lord; and he delighteth in his way." Ps 37:23.

If we walk His path each and every day we will be able to delight in everything that we do. If it is His path that we are on then He walks beside us and talks with us. If the path becomes too steep or rocky He will carry us over BUT it has to be His path.

Please note that it is not one step but many steps. So often we do not even begin the journey because we do not have the faith to. That does not mean that we should totally give up but it means then, to take one small step and as we realize that He really is there and we will not fall, then we will be able to take the next and the next and the next.

The definition of steps is: a measure or action, especially one of a series taken in order to deal with or achieve a particular thing.

All that we do in life should eventually result in Kingdom living. That should always be our final achievement. Our goal must always be on crossing the finish line which is eternity with Him. Whatever we, as individuals have been placed upon this earth to accomplish for the Kingdom should always be walked out with Him at our side. He is the one who gives the vision and direction for each of our lives and if you do not have one then simply ask because it is His desire that we each be active for His Kingdom and His glory.

It is time for us to desire more than the everyday mundane way of living. If we move forward with Him then every day will be fun and exciting. There is nothing boring about walking out the path He has set before us. Even going to work each day should become exciting as we step out in Him. If our job is a necessary chore and we view it as such then it will be uninteresting and boring and on Monday morning we will already be longing for Friday. If we step out with Jesus things will be so different.

For some time I was happy to handle the feeding program and minister and build cottages. That way there was not a huge responsibility. As time has gone by I have realized that there is a great need to build a center. I always viewed that as too much work but as I have taken one step at a time God has opened doors and made the way. What four years ago seemed an impossibility is now becoming reality as I have walked the vision with Him alongside. We often may not know the end from the beginning but He opens up doors as we progress along the path. That is because we would not take the first step if we knew exactly where we were going.

"This is the way, walk ye in it." Is 30:21 If it were just one step then we would not require anything from God. We would not need to depend upon Him or His Word but it is many steps and so we need His continual guidance, and to know that He is a part of everything that we do and say.

What makes us "good?" Romans 3:10 "None is righteous (good) no, not one." There is nothing that I can do in and of myself that will make me a good person. It is only when God steps into my life and changes my heart that I can become good. Our good works outside of that are as filthy rags. But we often become so self-righteous that we believe our works will suffice. Meanwhile we are an idolatrous people who have really turned our backs on God to pursue our own pleasures. In the Western church we have made idols of time, entertainment, preachers, television, food, exercising, or any other thing that consumes our time and leaves us with little or no time to wait upon the Lord or consume His Word. Despite everything, we still think that we can win our way into God's heart by our good works. Even in the church we think that if we do good works God will overlook the sin. Look what a good boy am I! I did this and this for You God. And God says I did not ask you to and this is nothing but a work of iniquity – a WORK OF THE FLESH. All God wants of us is to accept all that He achieved at Calvary and to become a new creature in Him. Then the works that we do in Him actually become His works, done by righteous people. All that we do should be as a result of God moving within us. The more we die to self the more the Holy Spirit is able to take over in us. The more the Holy Spirit takes over the more like Jesus we become and the more we will be able to reach out with God's compassion and God's healing, God's deliverance and God's love.

Good works outside of Christ are as filthy rags but we are created in Christ for good works. There is nothing I can do to earn my salvation but God's intention is that through our salvation will result acts of service not to promote ourselves but to promote the Kingdom.

Ephesians 2:10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

He has given each of us giftings (plural) and has made us a member of the Body. My toes cannot work without my feet and nor can my fingers work without my hand. My head will not turn without a neck. And yet we are never satisfied to be the toe or the neck, we want to be the head. Try walking balance perfect without a big toe. I have my own gifts but always look at someone else and want to be like them. I love to sing and always wanted to sing like some famous Gospel singer. Too bad!!!! I can sing and make a joyful noise unto Him and He is pleased with it. Do we want to be like others to impress people or to please God? God does not care what others think of us and nor should we.

It is time to have faith and believe God for all that He has called us to do. Time is short and the laborers are few. Are you one of His laborers who will help bring in the harvest? If we allow Him to take us on the journey we will enjoy a mighty harvest of souls.

MEET FOSTER CHILEMBWE

Foster Chilembwe is 89 years of age .He comes from Nsanje but he grew up in Zimbabwe. He went to Zimbabwe at a very young age where he started working as a house boy. His employees where white people and they were very fond of him and he was happy there. He returned to Malawi when he heard that the late Kamuzu Banda was selected to become President. Soon after he arrived here he got married and had only one child. They separated after three years of marriage because the woman had a terrible habit of stealing. He also found out from several people that she had been selling the food from the house. When he found out that she had been stealing he did not confront her immediately but lied to her and told her that her mother was critically ill and needed her to go back home and take care of her. He told her to take with her all her belongings .When they arrived at his mother-in-law's village, he gathered all her family members together and told them about her behavior. On those grounds he was no longer interested in the marriage because he could not trust her. He gave her money to take care of the child and they parted ways. He returned to the Blantyre where he remarried and took the job of a watchman. His second wife left him because she said she was no longer interested in the marriage and no longer had feelings for him and she returned to her parent's house. He then married for the third time and his third wife cheated on him and they separated for that reason .He never remarried after the third wife and he has four children. He does not see them and they do not support him in his old age.

He stays alone and is very happy. During the course of his marriages and the years he worked he believed so much in traditional medicines and other herbs and traditional healers (witchdoctors)

This is an excerpt from a prophecy given at the Elim Bible Institute Summer Camp Meeting in 1965 by Stanley Frodsham.

When I visit My people in mighty revival power, it is to prepare them for the darkness ahead. With the glory shall come great darkness, for the glory is to prepare My people for the darkness. I will enable My people to go through because of the visitation of My Spirit. Take heed to yourselves lest you be puffed up and think that you have arrived. Many shall be puffed up as in the olden days, for many then received My message but they continued not in it. Did I not anoint Jehu? Yet the things I desired were not accomplished in his life. Listen to the messengers, but do not hold men's persons in admiration. For many whom I shall anoint mightily, with signs and miracles, shall be lifted up and shall fall away by the wayside. I do not do this willingly; I have made provision that they might stand. I call many into this ministry and equip them; but remember that many shall fall. They shall be like bright lights and people shall delight in them. But they shall be taken over by deceiving spirits and shall lead many of My people away.

Hearken diligently concerning these things, for in the last days will come seducing spirits that shall turn many of My anointed ones away. Many shall fall through various lusts and because of sin abounding. But if you will seek Me diligently, I will put My Spirit within you. When one shall turn to the right hand or to the left you shall not turn with them, but keep your eyes wholly on the Lord. The coming days are most dangerous, difficult and dark, but there shall be a mighty outpouring of My Spirit upon many cities. My people must be diligently warned concerning the days that are ahead. Many shall turn after seducing spirits; many are already seducing My people. It is those who do righteousness that are righteous. Many cover their sins by theological words. But I warn you of seducing spirits who instruct My people in an evil way.

Many shall come with seducing spirits and hold out lustful enticements. You will find that after I have visited My people again, the way shall become more and more narrow, and fewer shall walk therein. But be not deceived, the ways of righteousness are My ways. For though Satan comes as an angel of light, hearken not to him; for those who perform miracles and speak not righteousness are not of Me. I warn you with great intensity that I am going to judge My house and have a church without spot or wrinkle when I come. I desire to open your eyes and give you spiritual understanding, that you may not be deceived but may walk in uprightness of heart before Me, loving righteousness and hating every evil way. Look unto Me, and I will make you to perceive with eyes of the Spirit the things that lurk in darkness that are not visible to the human eye. Let me lead you in this way that you may perceive the powers of darkness and battle against them. It is not a battle against flesh and blood; for if you battle in that way, you accomplish nothing. But if you let Me take over and battle against the powers of darkness, than they are defeated, and then liberation is brought to My people.

I warn you to search the Scriptures diligently concerning these last days. For the things that are written shall indeed be made manifest. There shall come deceivers among My people in increasing numbers who shall speak for the truth and shall gain the favour of the people. For the people shall examine the Scriptures and say, "What these men say is true." Then when they have gained the hearts of the people, then and only then shall Satan enter into My people. Watch for seducers. Do you think a seducer will brandish a new heresy and flaunt it before the people? He will speak the words of righteousness and truth, and will appear as a minister of light declaring the Word. The people's hearts shall be won. Then, when the hearts are won, they will bring out their doctrines, and the people shall be deceived. The people shall say, "Did he not speak thus and thus? And did we not examine it from the Word? Therefore he is a minister of righteousness. This that he has spoken we do not see in the Word, but it must be right, for the other things he spoke were true."

Be not deceived. For the deceiver will first work to gain the hearts of many, and then shall bring forth his insidious doctrines. You cannot discern those that are of Me and those that are not of Me when they start to preach. But seek Me constantly, and then when these doctrines are brought out you shall have a witness in your heart that these are not of Me. Fear not, for I have warned you. Many will be deceived. But if you walk in holiness and uprightness before the Lord, your eyes shall be open and the Lord will protect you. If you will constantly look unto the Lord, you will know when the doctrine changes and will not be brought into it. If your heart is right I will keep you; and if you will constantly look to Me, I will uphold you. The minister of righteousness shall be on this wise: his life shall agree with the Word and his lips shall give forth that which is wholly true, and it will be no mixture. When the mixture appears, then you will know he is not a minister of righteousness. The deceivers speak first the truth then error, to cover their own sins which they love. Therefore, I exhort and command you to study the Scriptures relative to seducing spirits, for this is one of the great dangers of these last days.

Our next project is to build the house for the Pastor on site. This will cost approximately $1000. It will consist of two bedrooms, a kitchen and a living area. The fence around the property will go in as soon as we can get the metal fence posts as we are having real trouble trying to find poison that will prevent the termites.

- Cottages for the elderly 10 x $5,000
- Fence the property in Tengani $4000
- Build the pastor's house $1300 (This has been paid for)
- Roof 5 houses in the mountains $ 400 (This has been paid for)
- Drill the well in the mountains $4000 (this has already been paid for)

Start the center for those elderly who can no longer take care of themselves consisting of four double rooms and a meeting hall which can be added on to. $10,000 - $5,000 to start with addition in the future

We also want to distribute four times this year since we have noticed how hungry many of the elderly are. $5000 per distribution.

I desire you to firmly be established in My Word and not in the personalities of men that you will not be moved as so many shall be moved. Take heed to yourselves and follow not the seducing spirits that are already manifesting themselves. Diligently inquire of Me when you hear something that you have not seen in My Word, and do not hold people's persons in admiration - for it is by this very method Satan will destroy many of My people.

Stanley Frodsham was a recognized prophet and teacher in the Body of Christ whose life and ministry spanned the Pentecostal Revival, the great Healing Revival and the early days of the Charismatic Movement. He also authored the well-known book, "Smith Wigglesworth: Apostle of Faith."

NO ONE IS TOO YOUNG OR TOO OLD TO BE USED BY GOD. YOU ARE ALWAYS THE PERFECT AGE.
